History

Marwari College, Bhagalpur, was established by Rai Bahadur Bansidhar Dhandhanian in September 1941. The College had only commerce faculty in the beginning. The college, which started with only three students in 1941, has today more than six thousand students. The arts faculty was started in 1955 and the science faculty in 1965. The college is situated in a semi-urban area. It aims at providing higher education not only to the rural and urban students of Bihar but also Jharkhand, West Bengal, Nepal and Bangladesh. The vision of the college is to impart quality education to suit the challenges of time. The mission of the college is to transform the vision into reality through creation of facilities to achieve excellence in the curricular and extracurricular activities.
